HYPERION.

Roland Reed and his admirable company will present the great laughing success, "Lead Me Your Wife," this evening. Mr. Reed appearing in his wonderful characterization of "Captain Abner Tarbox," as mild a mannered man as ever scuttled ship.

Captain Abner Tarbox is living at Kennebunk, Me., and has sent his scape-grace nephew, Dick Early, to New York to prevent his marriage to the captain's daughter, Hitty, and allows him a liberal sum provided he is to marry at an early date; else the allowance is to be stopped. At the expiration of the time Dick writes his uncle that he has carried out his wishes. The uncle is, of course, delighted. Dick, however, is still true to Hitty, who is let into his little deception. By and by, Dick again becomes short of money, and hits upon the happy idea of informing his relative that he has become the father of a bouncing boy. Tarbox had declared that he would never visit New York again, but he is suddenly apprised of his uncle's appointment to the command of a new line of steamers plying between Portland and New York, and that the old gentleman will arrive in the city in a few days. Dick in his predicament hits upon the novel idea of borrowing his friend, Tom Bunting's wife, Bessie, and her baby. The plans work capitally for awhile, but the complication grows serious, when Captain Tarbox insists upon Tom Bunting becoming engaged to his daughter Hitty. These complications afford an immense amount of laughter. Running through the play is a bright story of a claim against the British government. The characters are all strong and well developed.

Sale of seats now open. Prices $1 and 75 cents.

No one should miss the opportunity of witnessing "The Masqueraders" when it comes to the Hyperion the last three nights of the week. The play is said to be one of the best since the days of "The Two Orphans." It will be handsomely mounted and costumed and will be presented by a company of rare excellence from the Empire theater, New York, where the play was originally produced in this country. The sale of seats is very large and is now in progress at the box office of the Hyperion. Prices $1 and 75 cents.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The "Slaves of Gold" was presented to a large audience last evening. This drama has been presented here before. There is the aroma of the country, the sweetness and freshness of midsummer and the beauty of budding nature in the third act of "Slaves of Gold," which without any question, is one of the best things that have ever been produced on the modern stage. The picture which the delighted patron of the play gazes upon is an apple orchard the actual trees that were built at great expense, and that the delusion may be complete one of the members of the company plants blossoms from the great noble tree and makes them into a nosegay that is artistic and exquisite. There is not only one tree but a number of them, with the boughs, and branches, and the glimpse of the cozy country gives one a longing desire to be there and revel in the beauties and bounties of farm life.

The company is most excellent, including Elmer Grandin, Eva Mountford, Grandin, Thomas McGrath, Frank Beal, W. C. Arnold, W. Vestal, Lute Vrohmman, Emily Everett, Lottie Lester, Mary Burroughs and Margaret Moore.

The performance will be repeated this to-day and to-morrow. Matinee prices, 10, 20 and 25 cents.

John E. Brennan will present his great success, "Tim the Tinker" at the Grand Opera house Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Matinee Friday and Saturday.

DANGERS IN THE SHAPE OF stomach and bowel ills threaten the household and traveller at this season, which, if neglected, become prostrating diseases. To guard against them, nothing in medicine is so grateful and comforting, so pure and wholesome, so speedy and effective, as SANFORD'S GINGER.

Containing among its ingredients the purest of medicinal French brandy and the best of imported ginger, it is vastly superior to the cheap, worthless, and often dangerous ginger used as substitutes. Ask for SANFORD'S GINGER and look for owl trade mark on the wrapper. Sold everywhere. For Sale in New Haven, Conn., Sole Proprietors, Boston.

The three Hawthorne sisters were a revelation in their peculiar style of singing and dancing; nothing of the kind has been seen here before, and it is absolutely unique, being thoroughly English and quite different from the accepted American styles. Hearty applause greeted the handsome young ladies, who are now making their farewell tour of this country. They leave here next week, after the conclusion of this engagement, to open in London on November 15. There are many other acts on the bill that are thoroughly artistic as funmakers. Notable are those of George Fuller Golden, the three Davenes, Miss Prote, Mr. Sheridan and Miss Forrest, W. J. Gould, Murphy and McCoy, and the Andersons. Afternoon performances are given every day, and ladies are admitted for ten cents to all parts of the house.

Just go and see if there's any sense in Malley, Neely & Co.'s talk.
